A-Major Teams Looking to Play on Sunday

The 2006 NAFA World Series is officially in full swing. The Opening Ceremonies for the first weekend were held last night.

With a full slate of games on the schedule after the Ceremonies, the majority of teams who had finished playing stayed around to enjoy the ball games, featuring the local teams in Class AA.

Four teams earned a spot in the Class AA Winner's Bracket Quarterfinals with wins on Friday evening. One team was yet to be determined as of press time.

Nokomis Bud Light defeated Fisher Group 1-0 in the bottom of the seventh.

The Larry Miller Hogs advanced with a 7-0, five-inning victory over local club The Bar of Appleton-Mix.

A-1 Tank advanced with a hard fought 5-1 win over Wisconsin-based Earl's Club.

The Scarlett's Sox and New Image were playing as of press time.

After Saturday's slate of games in AA, four teams will remain undefeated. Those four teams will square off at 4:45pm on Sunday.

Only four teams remain undefeated in Class A-Major.

Cerro Gordo earned a spot with an impressive 15-3, five-inning win over Communicust.

Village Inn took the dramatic route to earn a spot in the Winner's Bracket Semifinal. Trailing by a run in the bottom of the seventh, Bill Erickson hit a three-run, walk-off home run to advance Village Inn.

Coppen's Brigade advanced with a 1-0 win over Ricola, scoring the game only run in the first inning.

The Duncan Outlaws moved on with a 7-1 win over Herda & Sons, thanks to a handful of late inning runs.

The first champion of the 2006 NAFA World Series will be crowned on Sunday, when the A-Major Championship is played at 1:15pm. The "If Necessary" game will be played at 3pm.

Clearly different.

Tid Bits

The Fox Cities are no stranger to World Class Mens' Fastpitch.

Sunset Park in Kimberly has hosted the ISC World Tournament a record 10 times, most recently in 2003.

That same year, Memorial Park here in Appleton hosted the ISC II Tournament of Champions.

The Fox Cities are in the process of submitting a bid for the 2008 ISC World Tournament.
